ST. James's, June 22. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Barons, Juſtices of Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply, &c. in the Shire of Murray; preſented by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sutherland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects, the Barons, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, in the Shire of Murray, under ſubſcribing, do out of the deep Senſe we have of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, beg leave (with Hearts full of Duty and Zeal for your Royal Perſon and Government) to aſſure your Majeſty that we will ſtand with our Lives and Fortunes ready on all Occaſions to vindicate your Sovereignty and undoubted Right to the Crown of this Realm, againſt all Pretenders or other your Enemies whatſoever.

And being deeply ſenſible of the great and ſeaſonable Deliverances which the Britiſh Nation in general, and this Shire in particular hath met with from a Foreign Invaſion (which next to divine Providence, is owing to your prudent Conduct and Care) Permit us in all Humility to return our dutiful Thanks to your Majeſty for the ſame, and to beg Almighty God long to preſerve your ſacred Perſon as a laſting Bleſſing to your Subjects; and likewiſe to wiſh that the happy Union may be more endear'd to your People, by its being render'd more intire and compleat; that thereby all your loyal Subjects in this part of North Britain called Scotland, may in Proportion be equal Sharers of that Liberty and Freedom of living which your other Subjects throughout the reſt of your Majeſty's Dominions do enjoy; and ſo ſhall there never be ground to make mention of Grievance or Diviſion within the Britiſh Iſle.

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters of the Goſpel within the Presbytery of Kirkwell in Orkney; preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir David Nairne.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Lisbon, June 20. N. S. By Letters of the 13th from our Camp near Olivença we underſtand, that the Armies continu'd in view of each other; but that a River in their Front made it impracticable to come to an Action. Our Forces in the mean time live in the Enemies Country, and upon their Forage. It is thought this is all the Advantage we ſhall be able to obtain over them, before the Heat of the Weather obliges both ſides to retire for ſome time into their Summer Quarters. The Duke of Oſſuna having intirely ruin'd the Fortifications of Moura and Serpa, is march'd back into Andaluſia.

Vienna, June 16 N. S. Signior Delfino, the Venetian Ambaſſador to this Court, had Yeſterday his Audience of Leave of the Emperor; and his Succeſſor, Signior Tiepolo, is daily expected here. An Expreſs from Milan brings Advice of the Arrival of the Queen of Spain there the laſt Day of May. When her Catholick Majeſty arriv'd on the Frontiers of the Venetian Territories, ſhe was complimented in the Name of the Republick by the Proveditor Delfino, who accompanied her to the Frontiers of Milan. Since the Eſtates of Hungary, aſſembled at Presburg, finiſh'd the Draught of the Repreſentation of their Grievances, to be offer'd to his Imperial Majeſty for Redreſs, they have ſpent ſome Days in reading them over in the two Houſes of the Diet, and have made ſeveral Amendments to them. One of the Grievances, relating to the diſpoſal of the Office of Chancellor of the Kingdom, has occaſion'd a very warm Diſpute between the Clergy and the other States; the latter demanding, that the Clergy be for the future excluded from that Employment. And the Debate roſe to ſuch a height, that the Cardinal Primate, with the whole Body of the Clergy, threatned to leave the Aſſembly, unleſs this Matter were left in its former State, and the Clergy declar'd equally capable of the Office of Chancellor with the Laiety. While the Catalogue of Grievances was reading over in the Upper Houſe, the Cardinal Primate produc'd a Paper, which he read in the Aſſembly and ſaid he had taken that Method to communicate his own private Thoughts concerning the Repreſentation of the Grievances drawn up by the Diet. The Subſtance of it is in Effect, That the Hereditary Right of Succeſſion in the Houſe of Auſtria, to the Crown of Hungary, be not any longer controverted; That the evacuating the Kingdom of Hungary of foreign Troops be not inſiſted on, eſpecially in the preſent Conjuncture; That the Incorporation of Tranſilvania with Hungary be not demanded; in the Affair of Religion, That the Lords of the Manor who are Catholicks, be left at Liberty to tolerate, or not, as they pleaſe, the Proteſtant Miniſters, and Subjects, who live in their Territories; And on the other hand, That the Lords of the Manor who are Proteſtants, have not Liberty to turn out of their Dominions the Catholick Prieſts and Subjects; That the Hungarians ſhall not ask of his Imperial Majeſty any Guarantee, or Oath, for the Security of their Rights and Privileges; but ſhall content themſelves with an Edict, or Declaration in Writing, ſuch as the Emperor gave to the Roman Empire. A Neapolitan Prince, Ciuſani by Name, is arriv'd here in ſix Days from Milan, and brings Advice, That before his Departure, an Expreſs was arriv'd there from Genoa, to acquaint the Queen of Spain, that three Ships of Sir John Leake's Squadron were arriv'd in that Port, and the reſt expected in a few Days; that Admiral Leake, in his Paſſage, had met with a French Fleet of Tranſport-Ships, bound for the Ports of Spain, with Proviſions and Ammunition to their Armies there, of which he had taken 96 Sail, and carry'd them into Barcelona. General Heiſter having order'd ſome Imperial Regiments of Horſe to march thro' the Rabau towards Javarin; Bezeredi, with his Body of 5000 Hungarians, is retir'd from the Neighbourhood of Atlenburg, to obſerve the Motions of that Imperial Detachment. General Heiſter has caus'd an Order to be publiſh'd at Presburg, requiring all the Wives and Children of ſuch Perſons as are in Service with the Malecontents to depart the Town immediately, and forbidding all Perſons whatſoever to hold any manner of Correſpondence with the ſaid Malecontents. General Rabutin continuing ſomewhat Indiſpos'd at Peterwaradin, the Governor of that Place, Baron Nehm, is march'd with the Troops which came out of Tranſilvania, reinforc'd by ſome Raſcians, and other Forces. General Schlick went from hence two Days ago to the Army on the Moſelle.

Berne, June 21. N. S. The Deputies of the Proteſtant Cantons who were aſſembled at Arau, have broke up, and referr'd the Deciſion of the Affair of Tockenburg to the General Diet of the whole Helvetick Body; but before they concluded their Seſſion, all the other Cantons had given Aſſurances to thoſe of Zurich and Berne of their Aſſiſtance, in caſe of any Rupture. The Conference which has been held between the Cantons of Switz, Claris, and thoſe of Tockenburg, according to a Reſolution of the Diet of Arau, has prov'd ineffectual. Letters from Lyons and Marſeilles ſay, That the People of Palermo had refus'd Entrance to the Troops commanded by Monſieur Mahoni, and that there had been ſome Diſpute between thoſe Troops and the Inhabitants, in which Mahoni himſelf was wounded, and oblig'd to reimbark his Men, in order to tranſport them to Meſſina.

Frankfort, June 24. N. S. There has paſs'd by this Place a Regiment of the Troops of Holſtein, on their March to the Army on the Upper Rhine; and we hear there are arriv'd two Regiments of Huſſars in Suabia, which are to join the ſame Army. His Electoral Highneſs of Hanover
